The Killonian

PROLOGUE

So quickly . . .
So stealthily . . .

You have crept upon us blanketing our spring with the dark cloud of departure . . .

Our hearts are quickened by the realization of an end attained . . .

Yet,
we would wait . . .
we hesitate to loose the chain that binds us to our school . . .

On the threshold we pause to look back . . .
challenging days,
fun-filled days,
wonderful days . . .

O June,
you beckon
all too soon . . .

And yet,
we are ready . . .
yes, almost eager to depart . . .

As small birds we must try our wings remembering well the lessons taught and ideas instilled . . .

Alerted to the tempo of life as it rushes on catching us up in its whirlwind . . .

KILLINGLY HIGH SCHOOL
DANIELSON, CONNECTICUT

The publication of this book marks the close of an important time in our lives — our high school days . . .

In this book is our story — the story of the ideas and thoughts that have helped to fashion our past four years at Killingly High . . .

A message is conveyed in every word and in every picture . . .

Through the Faculty,
Sports, and Activities
sections the present unfolds . . .

Through the Undergraduate
section the future is represented . . .

Carefully preserved in the Graduate section are the memories we have shared with one another — the memories we will cling to . . .

This is our story — our yearbook,
"The 1960 Killonian" . . .

MISS IMELDA BRODEUR

The Class of 1960 is honored to dedicate its yearbook to Miss Imelda Brodeur. Throughout her years at Killingly, she has endeared herself to students and fellow teachers alike by her jovial temperament and her ever-present willingness to lend a helping hand, Efficiency and thoroughness are two more characteristics which make her a person to be admired and emulated. In addition to preparing boys and girls to take their place in the business world, she has charge of the finances of the yearbook, a task which grows more demanding every year. She is the type of person one can always rely on in time of need and can depend on in time of stress.

We are accustomed to seeing her full of fun and bustling with energy in every phase of school life. Miss Brodeur has been a friend, a counselor, and a comrade to the Class of 1960 and we want her to know she will always have a place in the hearts of us all.

Mr. Robert D. Payne

In the two years that Mr. Payne has been at Killingly, he has done much to earn both our respect and gratitude. We have found him to be greatly interested in all of our activities, and it is for this genuine interest that we would like to extend our heartfelt "thank you."

OUR ADMINISTRATORS

Mr. Francis J. Fisher

Throughout our years at Killingly, we have regarded Mr. Fisher as a respected leader and good friend. We appreciate his many efforts to make the school run smoothly and his willingness to aid us at any time. He exemplifies the excellence of character that we strive for. We shall always be grateful for what he has given us.

MRS. NIEJADLIK

As each of us planned and prepared for the future, we found in Mrs. Niejadlik a source of excellent counsel and friendly cooperation. We thank you, Mrs. Niejadlik, for your friendly assistance and for giving so much.

SECRETARY

MISS CHARTIER

Miss Chartier is such a familiar sight to us that Killingly would not be Killingly without her. We would like to thank you, Miss Chartier, for the soft voice, friendly smile and ever faithful service.

NURSE

MISS GIBNEY

Miss Gibney, our competent and friendly nurse, has listened to the tales of the sick and the not-so-sick with an enviable patience. We thank you, Miss Gibney, for providing with such charm, an indispensable service.

We cling to the memories of the past — but only for a little while . . .

The door is now open and we,
the Class of 1960, walk onward . . .

To face the future with heads held high . . .

There are many obstacles, but we are confident . . .

We are optimistic, courageous,
determined . . .

We stand on the threshold of the Door of Wisdom . . .

We have completed a task . . .

We seek more knowledge . . .

With added knowledge
we will find our reward . . .

We are ready for the next challenge . . .

We will meet it without dismay . . .

With patience we will reach our goal . . .

Success and happiness through service,
this is our goal — our reward . . .

VALEDICTORIAN

CHARLES ENNIS

It is a notable accomplishment to rise to the rank of valedictorian in a class as large as ours, while also participating in extracurricular activities, including being one of our star basketball players. Charles Ennis has had the desire and determination to spend four years in study to achieve this honor, and we, the Class of 1960, have much respect and many good wishes for Charles for this accomplishment.

SALUTATORIAN

MARYLIN CLARIE

Marylin Clarie, one of our busiest classmates, has attained the scholastic standing of second highest in our class. In addition, she has served as one of our representatives to Laurel Girls' State and has participated in many school activities. It is with great pride that the Class of 1960 salutes Marylin and offers its sincere congratulations.

These few short years of mem - o - ries with-in these i - vied
So swift - ly these four years have passed lost in the sands of halls, Have filled our minds with learn - ing for the time, These friends who formed our high school class have world out-side which calls. The trea-sures of our each a thought in mind. May we remem'r this pre - friendships, all the plea-sures that we knew, The joys - alas the cious day, as we play lifes fad-ed parts, Your mem - ories dear sorrows, Oh yes, we've shared them too.

Killingly, will live on in our hearts.

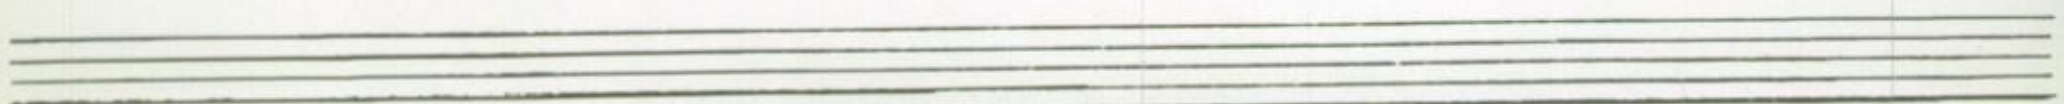

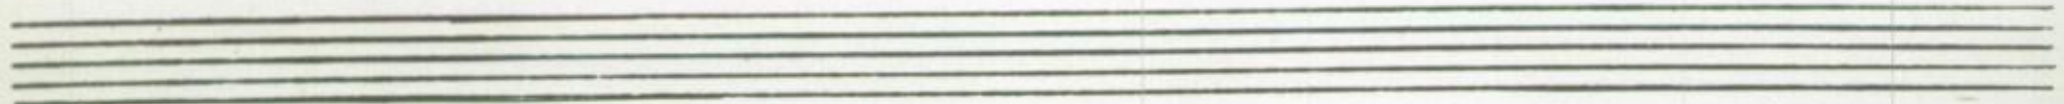

CHORUS: The

world outside awaits us, as we throw these portals wide, We leave you dear old Killingly, our hearts are filled with pride.

CLASS HISTORY

Can it be true? Is graduation really here? Are all our precious moments together over? Why, it seems only yesterday that . . .

We walked the halls in subdued silence, awed by the "sophisticated" upperclassmen. Not quite sure of what we were doing, but gaining confidence under the able direction of Mr. Frederick Oliva, we held our first class meeting on October 12, 1956. Elected to lead us during our Freshman year were: Thomas Singleton, President; Linnea Lindstrom, Vice-President; Marie Lefrancois, Secretary; Paul Samborski, Treasurer; and Patricia Chapman, Historian.

Very soon we had something to boast about. There were eleven able representatives of our class on the school football team and eight active basketball enthusiasts on the Junior Varsity. How proud we were when one of our classmates, Tom Singleton, was selected to play on the Varsity basketball team.

On January 11, 1957, six Freshmen, Dorothy Briere, Catherine Champlin, Joyce Duval, Bruce Juhola, Linnea Lindstrom and Jacqueline Loiselle made fine showings in the Annual Spelling Bee.

It wasn't long before we were busily making plans for our first dance. On March 15, 1957, the Class of 1960 presented "Shamrock Shake" with music by Ernie Briere and his orchestra.

Paul Samborski bestowed honor upon the Freshman class when he was a winner at the Annual Science Fair.

During the final assembly we sat in the Sophomore seats beaming with pride. No more were we lowly Freshmen.

When we returned in the fall of 1957, we felt like old pros as we entered our first class meeting as Sophomores, with Miss Goyette as our advisor. We elected Thomas Singleton, President; Paavo Ruokonen, Vice-President; Lynn Balfour, Secretary; Vaino Hoffren, Treasurer; Patricia Chapman, Historian.

Four members of our class were now members of the Traffic Squad. Policing the halls with the upperclassmen were Jane Anderson, Colleen Brown, Marilyn Clarie, and Paul Peabody.

The 1957 football season found ten members of our class giving all they had.

The new majorettes happily representing our class were Beverly Carey and Catherine Champlin.

Along with seven players on the Junior Varsity, Thomas Singleton was again selected to play Varsity basketball.

Soon we proudly displayed our new class rings.

On January 17, 1958 we were well represented in the Annual Spelling Bee by: Linda Arnold, Catherine Champlin, Linnea Lindstrom, Marilyn Marcheterre and Elizabeth Schultz.

In the 34th Annual Speaking Contest, Sandra Knight, who placed third, and Kristine Rukstela left no doubt about the dramatic ability in our class.

Demonstrating their scientific ability, James Mercier, Bruce Juhola and Paul Samborski were winners in the Annual Science Fair.

With an air of confidence we enthusiastically made plans for our Sophomore informal which was to be held on May 16, 1958. "May-time Madness" was a huge success because of the wholehearted efforts of our class.

With the closing of our last year as underclassmen, eight happy Sophomores were chosen as cheerleaders. Those selected for their Junior and Senior years were Lynn Balfour, Alice Cotnoir, Colleen Dubuc, Sandra Knight, Elizabeth Lawton, Linnea Lindstrom, Carol Romppainen and Louise Tessier.

We returned in September, 1958, full of anticipation for our first busy year as upperclassmen. Our first class meeting, under the guidance of Mr. Frank Koss, who was to lead us capably through our Junior year, gave us the following officers: Thomas Singleton, President; Paavo Ruokonen, Vice-President; Marie Lefrancois, Secretary; Paul Samborski, Treasurer; and Patricia Chapman, Historian.

From the first day of our return we were aware of some new voices belting out, "No talking, please." New representatives of our class on the Traffic Squad included Robert Golas, Paavo Ruokonen, Thomas Singleton, Roberta Terwilliger, Patricia Chapman and Elizabeth Haveles.

Fourteen of our classmates displayed their perseverance on the football team, while three new majorettes, Linda Arnold, Carol Fortier and Dale White, helped provide incentive on the field and in pep rallies.

We were proud of the five Junior Varsity and five Varsity players who represented our class so well on the basketball court.

In the Annual Spelling Bee held in January, representatives of our class included Paul Brennan, Catherine Champlin, William Normington, Roberta Terwilliger and Bonnie Wood, who placed third and consequently made us very proud to be in the Junior Class.

We were filled with pride when six members of our class were inducted into the National Honor Society on March 13, 1959. The inductees were Marylin Clarie, Charles Ennis, Robert Golas, Bruce Juhola, Paul Samborski and Thomas Singleton.

Three of our classmates were selected to participate in the 35th Annual Speaking Contest finals held on March 19. They were Jane Anderson, Kristine Rukstela and Patricia Chapman.

Of the seven pupils who represented our school at the All-State tryouts on March 21, Linda Arnold and Paul Peabody brought distinction to our class by being selected for the Festival.

Annual Science Fair winners included Charles Ennis, Ann Holowaty, Emilia Julku, Richard Kurtz and Paul Samborski as representatives of our class.

With intense fervor we launched plans for our long-awaited first prom. Our diligence was well-rewarded when we stepped into "Blue Mist" on May 1, 1959. Everyone was decidedly pleased, and not at all surprised, when Linnea Lindstrom was crowned queen of the prom with Lynn Balfour and Marie Lefrancois as her delighted attendants. It was a night which will long be remembered.

Under the able, and sometimes hilarious, directorship of Mr. Hoar, we began rehearsals for our unique Junior presentation. On the evenings of May 14th and 15th we presented 3 one-act plays, "The Monkey's Paw", "The Death of the Hired Man", and "Opening Night". Numerous Juniors took part in the plays and enjoyed every moment of it.

The deserving recipients of the honor of attendance at Laurel Girls' State and Nutmeg Boys' State were Marylin Clarie, Elizabeth Haveles, Roland Cloutier and Robert Golas.

During the last assembly, the annual U. S. History award was bestowed on Marylin Clarie and Carolyn Wood, while Gerard Cloutier was awarded the Harvard Book Prize for scholarship and character.

Yes, June had arrived, and we were Seniors! — and eagerly anticipating our last and busiest year at K.H.S.

It seemed a little strange to be behind the closed doors of Room 14 and actually electing our last slate of officers. Already beginning to feel a little nostalgic as Mr. Brine spoke of planning for graduation, we elected Thomas Singleton, President; Ronald LaFleur, Vice-President; Marie Lefrancois, Secretary; Paul Samborski, Treasurer; and Patricia Chapman, Historian.

David Adams, Carol Basley, Roland Cloutier, Charles Ennis, Richard Kurz, Ronald LaFleur, Kristine Rukstela, Paul Samborski, and Bonnie Wood were audible Senior additions to the Traffic Squad.

How pleased we were to see Carol Fortier, head majorette, happily leading the band. New Senior majorettes chosen were Helen Caldwell and Patricia Chapman.

The football season closed with a 6 wins—3 losses record which, in the light of the three previous seasons' records, clearly showed the effort put forth by both the team and the Coach. Seniors on the team, most of whom had been working diligently on the field since Freshman year, were Paul Brennan, Roland Cloutier, Earl Clements, David Cournoyer, Charles Kania, David Keeler (Co-cap.), Ronald LaFleur (Co-cap.), Kenneth Leoutsacos, John Murphy, George Nichols, and Paul Samborski.

One of our first major activities was the election of Carolyn Wood and Linnea Lindstrom to serve as co-editors of our yearbook. Carolyn and Linnea with their staff have spent long and hard hours working on our yearbook, and we are very grateful to them.

Our Senior play, "The Boarding House Reach", was presented on December 16th and 17th. Largely because of the efforts of Mr. Brine, the comedy was splendidly received. We will never forget his perseverance during rehearsals and the two words: louder and slower.

Senior participants in the commendable 1959-60 basketball season included Paul Brennan, Charles Ennis, Ronald LaFleur, Paul Samborski and Thomas Singleton.

All of these boys deserve credit; they gave up their free hours after classes to earn acclaim for our school.

David Allen, Paul Brennan, Patricia Chapman, Joan Cinami, Janet LaCombe, Marilyn Marcheterre, Patricia Sanders and Roberta Terwilliger were Senior representatives in the Annual Spelling Bee in January.

After weeks of careful planning and preparation, the Senior formal, "In the Still of the Night," was held on January 29. Music for the memorable evening was provided by Edmund Skeffington and his orchestra. Our deserving queen was Marie Lefrancois, and happily serving as attendants were Sandra Knight and Patricia Chapman.

Soon after, we were happy to learn that Linnea Lindstrom, who has done so much for our class, was chosen as recipient of the D.A.R. Good Citizenship Award.

Appropriately, Charles Ennis and Marylin Clarie were selected during March as valedictorian and salutatorian.

How proud we were when Kristine Rukstela and Sandra Knight won second and third prizes in the 36th Annual Speaking Contest on March 17. Other Seniors who were selected to participate in the finals were Carol Stone and Patricia Chapman.

New Senior inductees into the National Honor Society were Lynn Balfour, Gerard Cloutier, Anthony Croce, Emilia Julku, Roberta Terwilliger and Geoffrey Ross.

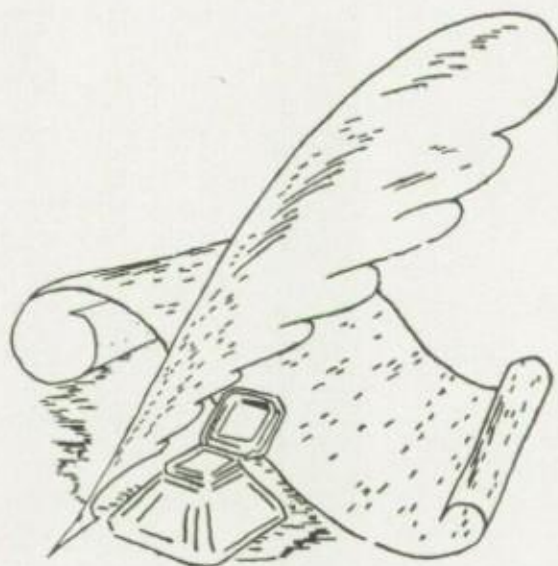

And now, as we are about to realize our long-awaited goal of graduation, we wonder if we ever would have made it through our Senior year without Mr. Brine. His patience, good-humor and knowledge have provided a goal for us. Mr. Brine, you have been more than a teacher to us; you have been an experience — and one we will never forget.

Although we are about to leave Killingly High School and go our separate ways, we will not really be alone. The proud and happy moments we have shared will be an eternal bond between each of us.

Respectfully submitted,

Patricia Chapman

Class Historian

THE GREAT DOCUMENT OF THE ELDERS

DATED: 1960

We, the senior squaws and braves of the tribe of Indians commonly known as the Killingly High School Redmen, have called this pow-wow for a very important ceremony. It is customary for all Indians who depart from the tribe and go out into the wilderness alone, to leave behind a will so that you, the people of our village, and the Great Spirit will not forget them. As we, the elders of 1960, have also decided to obey this custom which our forefathers have followed throughout the ages, the reading of the Great Document will take place at this ceremony.

Kathy Parnell wills her Southern accent to Mr. Nichols so that he will be able to converse with the Southerners when he takes his next vacation.

Carol Samborski is the lucky recipient of Pat Chapman's ability to overcome anyone in a friendly argument.

Jon Kastberg leaves still wishing that boys could take Homemaking.

Judy Baker bequeaths her flirtatious eyes to Sandra Lewis. However, Sandra is warned to use them with care.

Geoffrey Ross leaves for St. Louis with his thousands of Christmas trees.

Charlie Kania has finally been persuaded to give up his fantastic spelling ability. The recipient of this skill is Eva Kamuda.

Jeanine Gervais leaves her title "Miss Most Talkative" to any person who can outdo her, but she is quite sure that is impossible.

Valeria Cimoehowski bequeaths to the student body free tickets to the movie entitled "Education is a Must." We're sure all of you will take advantage of this offer.

Paul Peabody leaves for "Birdland" where he can dig those cool sounds.

Betty Hopkins and Roman Gumula bequeath their shy ways to Susan Whipple and Earl Aubin.

Bob Golas leaves K.H.S. without an established flirt. Have no fear, Bob; someone will soon take your place.

Carl Breckel wills his brother George the problem of keeping up the "Breckel Tradition." Good luck, George!

Betsy Penney bequeaths Blumenthal's bookkeeping to Lynn Birch, expecting she will be most efficient.

Mr. Lessard is the recipient of Charlie Hurlburt's deceased fruit flies. However, Mr. Lessard must promise never to give away the secret of how the fruit flies died.

Bob Joly leaves his suave-debonair way towards the fairer sex to Tony Kaminski.

Marylin Clarie leaves to be the first "Democratic Woman President."

John Burke leaves Mr. Nichols without anyone to give double zero to.

Jim Mercier leaves the Chem. Lab minus the chemicals.

Anneliese Graff bequeaths her French III book to the Danielson Fire Department to be thrown into the next fire — by accident, of course.

Quentin Ross is the fortunate recipient of Ann Holowaty's Advanced Math Answer Book, because he might need it.

Joan Despatie wills the business machine that she messed up to Doriney Lofgren, with the hope that she may straighten it out.

Betty Schultz bequeaths her weakness for late hours and olives to Bea Allen.

Colleen Dubuc wills her cheering voice to Judy Rose with the belief that the football players will be able to hear her cheer them on.

Bob Giguere leaves K.H.S. in his T. Bird.

John Murphy and Joyce Duval will their title "Class Couple" to Dave Oatley and Gerry Moreira with the condition that they must live up to this honor.

George Sirrine is the lucky recipient of Roberta Terwilliger's amazing stenographic ability.

Dennis Wright leaves immediately for his old home state, Pennsylvania.

Bonnie Wood bequeaths her skill in sports to "Toots" Perreault.

Don Bond wills the art of being late to every class to anyone who is as busy as he was.

Theresa Gelinas wills her blue sneakers to anyone who has cold feet, as they are the latest in fashion — insulated.

Wilfred Laurion and his crew are the recipients of Gerard and Gerald Brooks', Dennis Hopkins', Arthur Stringer's and David Shippee's technical abilities.

To Alfred Pietras goes Paavo Ruokonen's "hot mufflers."

Arlene Benson leaves still uncertain that H₂O is really water. She hopes that some day she will find the solution.

Linda Arnold wills her red hair to Sandra Clements so that she will look as though she is related to her brother, Earl.

Pat Sanders leaves Mr. Hammond wondering if she could possibly be a professional debater.

Linda Stuyinski and Nancy Zadora relinquish their four-day school week to Dixie Doran and Ronnie Haapala.

Robert Smith leaves Miss Brodeur without a stencil-maker.

John Shekleton is the fortunate recipient of Stan Ozog's impeccable wit.

Melvyn Kivel wills his list of "I don't understand why" questions to next year's Advanced Math class. Good luck, Mr. Koss.

Liz Lawton bequeaths her muscles to Marlene Veilleux so she can twist the boys around her little finger. Liz did.

Mary Benkovich leaves for the University of Miami to major in water skiing.

Sandra Knight wills her supply of tardy slips for sleeping late to Jackie Loiselle.

Kerry Brown leaves his job as coach of the K.M.S. undefeated basketball team to anyone who can handle them.

Charlie Ennis leaves to return to Atlantic City where once again he will observe molecular structures.

Janet Terwilleger bequeaths her secret for a perfect figure to all the girls who are overweight. However, girls are warned to use it discreetly.

Carolyn Wood wills her job as co-editor of the yearbook to anyone who has hours of free time and lots of patience.

Gail Boisclair leaves all her information on the W.A.V.E.S. to Mrs. Niejadlik.

Martin Randall would like to bequeath his good nature to Steve Burlingame.

Richard LaCombe wills his position at the A&P to anyone who can pack shelves and stamp items for three extra hours a day.

Bill Normington relinquishes his tuba to Warren Logee so that the brass section of the band will not suffer in quality.

Sandra Racine, June Solomon, and Carolyn Lime gladly donate their leisure time to Mr. Lessard, who needs it.

Nancy Beebe wills her chewing gum to Diane Riley, with this warning: "For those who get caught there is detention; but if you are careful like "me", you won't get caught, or at least not very often!"

To the K.H.S. golf team, Bruce Juhola leaves his broken tees. He hopes this will set an example for the members on the techniques of golf.

Ken Leoutsacos leaves Mr. Brine still wondering how to spell his name.

Joan Faford wills her closetful of short skirts to any Sophomore girl who believes the styles will not change next year.

Saul Ahola is the recipient of Donnie Keech's ability as a salesman. He feels the Juniors are going to need someone with a lot of selling skill in order to come out ahead in their senior year.

Blanche Couture is the receiver of Cathi Champlin's petiteness.

Paul Brennan wills his football spikes to Herbert Cooley with the assurance that he can fill the requirements of such an honor.

Eddie Hyland thought he would have to leave the Royalaires without a director, but at the Honor Society assembly, he discovered that Ken Normington had hidden talent as a conductor, so he willed him his position.

Margaret Baillie leaves her freckles to Elaine Caron.

Mary Jane Olsiewski bequeaths her position at the Danielson Public Library to Jo-Ann Tourtellotte.

Carol Romppainen leaves her many free hours in a day to Betsey Ferriss. It is believed that with this extra time she will improve her marks next year.

Paul Samborski wills his brain to the football squad cautioning them to treat it with care, but Richard Kurz is against it because Richard needs it at Cincinnati.

Wayne LaChance leaves Mr. Mercier without a floor sweeper, but he is quite sure that some sophomore boy will offer his services.

Beth Haveles or as she is sometimes called, "Miss Best Dressed of the Year," relinquishes her elaborate wardrobe to her sister JoAnn.

Dave Cournoyer wills his fishing poles and guns to Jerry Perreault, but has decided to keep the telephone numbers of the girls he dates secret.

Franklin King bequeaths a new supply of red zero marking pencils to Mr. Nichols. In this way Mr. Nichols will be prepared when someone hasn't done his homework. Good thinking, Frank!

Frey Aarnio leaves Coach Roche without an instructor on the parallel bars. With this in mind he wills his position to Jim Ducat. You'd better start building yourself up, Jim!

Jack "Ripper" Laakso leaves a patch in front of K.H.S. in order to set a good example of safe driving habits for the underclassmen.

Leena Vaananen leaves for Hollywood to portray the famous character "Mrs. Mott" in the play "Boarding House Reach." We are sure you'll be a hit, Leena.

Jean Terwilleger wills her English notes to anyone who can translate them from Chinese to English.

Rita Provencal was going to bequeath her briefcase to Pat Long, but then she realized that it was much too heavy for Pat to pick up.

Lucien Grenon and Red Gladu are the recipients of Dave Keeler's and Ronnie LaFleur's "Desire to win" in sports.

Jane Anderson leaves her job at Deary Brothers to Lynda Baribeault.

Bev Melanson is the fortunate recipient of Carol Fortier's baton.

Armand Gaudette is the lucky receiver of Arthur Picard's way with girls. We suspect you'll be a new boy next year, Armand.

To Janice Nash goes Carol Stone's flirtatious manner. Watch out, Sophomore boys!

Kristine Rukstela gladly wills all tasks such as clearing dishes and waiting on people at Berris' to Aino. You poor girl!

Joseph Chauvin bequeaths his trumpet to Kusti Murd with the condition that he in turn will give the instrument next year to some new talented musician. Joe figures his trumpet is the key to success.

Roger Poirier leaves hoping for the best.

Louise Tessier has donated her seat in Room 14 to her sister, Connie.

Mary Winchell wills her giggle to Elizabeth Graff.

Gerry Cloutier leaves Mr. Koss in his Advanced Math class wondering if x can possibly equal y .

Carol Linkkila is the recipient of Marie Le-francois' popularity and good looks.

David Adams leaves Miss Brodeur minus a handy-man to fix the business machines.

Carolyn Leeman wills her beautiful golden hair to Sheila Normington.

Lynn Balfour bequeaths her gay outlook on life to all those of the student body who are moody and irritable. No doubt it will now be a better and happier place to go to school.

Tony Croce leaves his curly locks and all his handmade Indian sweaters to Jonathan Greene because Jonathan is noted for always being well dressed, and Tony feels this donation will complete Jon's wardrobe.

Roland Cloutier wills his propensity for losing English books to Pat Baker.

Suzon Beauvais is the recipient of Linnea Lindstrom's talents as an orator and as a leader. In addition she will also receive many of Linnea's hidden talents.

Earl Clements wills his horse to the school for such purposes as sleigh rides and transportation home for those who have detention.

Carol Basley leaves her Egyptian Camel's Hair paint brush to the person who does most of the art work for the junior class. Moreover, we would like to reveal the fact that this brush is a magic one; consequently art is made easy in one simple lesson.

Joan Cinami likes everyone in this school, or so it appears, because she leaves the entire student body an invitation to her wedding, which is to be held in China. We'll be there on time, Joan!

Mary Crook leaves with her hope chest practically filled.

Joyce Child and Joan Phaneuf will their quiet and patient ways to Diane LaBelle.

1960 CLASS

PROPHECY

The year is 1965. The class prophets have made a pilgrimage to Delphi, Greece. They hope to receive inspiration in the same manner as Pythia. She sat on a tripod over a chasm leading to the underground river, Cassotis. The fumes and vapors from this river put her in a state of wild intoxication, but also gave her weird powers of prophecy.

Geoffrey: We walked into the temple built over the chasm. The tripod was gone. In its place was one of those armchairs with a built-in vibrator. Nearby was a sign printed in Greek. I asked the guide to translate it.

He read, "Tourists, relax! Ten Drachmas."

Geoffrey: I sat in the chair, and I put the coins in the slot. I tried to sniff the odors from the river below. I almost passed out. The guide explained that they were having sewage problems in nearby Delphi.

As I sat there, holding my nose, the gentle vibration of the chair put me to sleep. I began dreaming of the future. I saw many of my friends. There was Jack Laakso, a C.P.A., cheating on his 1980 income tax return.

I see Paul Peabody and Eddie Hyland have made it. They're in Birdland. Those guys always were way out!

Paul Samborski is a noted chemist at Maybelline's.

Joyce Egan is a test pilot for Sikorski. She lands her 'copters at Bradley Field where Paavo Ruokonen owns his own aeronautical repair shop.

Robert Giguere is a super salesman. He sells elevated shoes.

Melvyn Kivel has a booming business going. He is a stone mason on Bikini atoll.

Gerry Cloutier is M.C. on "Keep Talking." Bob Golas fills in when Gerry runs out of breath.

Ronnie LaFleur is working on the United States' latest moon rocket. The big question is, "Will it flip or will it flop?"

Martin Randall is working for the Connecticut Light and Power Company. They hired him because of his height. He doesn't have to climb as far up the poles.

David Allen is captain of a tanker for Gulf Oil.

There is Charlie Hurlburt, the dentist. What a swollen jaw! It looks like Richard Anger, one of his patients, took revenge. It's a good thing that Charlie's able assistant Carol Romppainen calmed Richard down before he did more damage.

Jimmy Mercier is posing for "before" pictures in Charles Atlas ads.

Arlene Benson and Judy Baker are dancing instructors on the Arthur Murray Show.

Virginia Leach, our lady Senator, is conducting an investigation of poor grammar in high school textbooks.

Roberta Terwilliger, who studied book-keeping in high school, has opened up shop at Lincoln Downs.

Joyce Duval just won a gold medal in girls' basketball at the 1980 Olympics.

Carolyn Wood is head librarian at the Library of Congress. I guess she still loves books as much as ever.

Linnea Lindstrom, professor at Yale, is also coach of the debating team.

Lynn Balfour is the new Secretary of the Department of Welfare.

Bruce Juhola has been working on a top secret project for the Navy. It is a charity organization for sea urchins.

Arthur Picard is collaborating with Boris Karloff on another teen-age thriller.

Colleen Brown and Marylin Clarie are ghost writing "Dear Abby" sections. It seems that Marie Edmondson and Jeanine Gervais are keeping them busy.

Pat Chapman is psychologist in the Advertising Department of the American Tobacco Company.

Rita Provencal is psychoanalyzing Joyce Child to find out what makes her giggle.

Jane Anderson is studying the effects of Cosmic Rays on penguins in the Antarctic. That must be interesting work.

Mary Benkovich designs clothes for Dior, and she has worked her way up to fourth vice-president.

Joe Chauvin and David Cournoyer own their own taxi service in Chicago. I'm glad to see that Dave has given up hitchhiking.

Ann Holowaty has discovered uranium on her father's estate in Brooklyn. That will really start something!

We're proud to announce that Mary Crook is going straight.

Sheila Dvarcas is the new assistant home-making teacher at K.H.S. She always did love that type of thing.

Sandra Knight is still looking for a car that will get her to work on time. I wonder if she will ever find one.

But the chair is stopping, and I feel a tap on my shoulder. Roberta: Okay, Geoffrey. Your time is up. Let me have a try at it. Boy, this chair is surely comfortable. I'm drifting off into dreamland.

Why there's Valeria Cimochoowski. She is the manager of the theater, and Betty Hopkins and Joan Phaneuf work for her. Everyone seems to think that there is an automatic change-maker down there, but it's just that Betty is so short no one can see her. Richard Kurz is the head projectionist.

Louise Tessier is the town's first lady plumber. She found she was very mechanical when the mimeograph machine leaked ink one day.

Colleen Dubuc is now employed by TWA, but she tries to tell the pilot how and where to fly. She always was pretty argumentative.

Roland Cloutier is a doctor in a big clinic in New York City. Linda Arnold is his secretary and assistant. He's lost a multitude of patients, though, because she just can't remember where to put in a needle.

Leena Vaananen just received an award as "Miss Chicken Plucker" of the year. She always did have lovely hands.

Gail Boisclair and Elaine Gagnon have a joint business. It is a combination restaurant and mortuary. Pat Sanders drives the limousine.

David Shippee owns the world's largest horse ranch. Mary Jane Olsiewski manages his riding stables.

Joan Cinami, Ruth Campbell, and Marie Lefrancois are partners in the new Deary Sisters, Inc.

Carol Stone is the national den mother for the Boy Scouts of America, and George Nichols has finally worked up to head of the organization.

Fires in the Danielson area have increased considerably since Arthur Stringer became an electrician; he just can't tell the difference between the white wires and the black wires.

Dennis Hopkins has invented a new electric 00-Ga horn. I bet it has terrific tone!

Gerald and Gerard Brooks run the Twin Lumber and Building Corporation.

Marilyn Marcheterre styles the inside of garbage cans. I always thought she had some interest along that line.

Dave Adams is head bookkeeper, and Betsy Penney is secretary at the Dennis Wright Company, Exporters of Southern Fried Chicken.

Geoffrey Ross invented a new way to dust. It is a system in which the housewife turns one small button, and everything in the home sucks up the dust and devours it. He's made millions with this terrific idea.

Richard LaCombe is the only living man ever to lose an Atomic Submarine while in active service.

Joan Despatie and Theresa Gelinas own their own motel, and Janet Terwilleger does all their legal work for them.

Dale White has just been nominated the cutest and most mixed-up secretary ever to graduate from K.H.S. Good old Dale!

The two Carols of the Business Department, Basley and Fortier, are accounts receivable and accounts payable bookkeepers at a large company. They have to have Carolyn Lime tell them what to debit and credit.

June Solomon has just won the Irish Sweepstakes. How lucky can you get?

Mary Winchell works in the laboratory of a ponytail clip factory. Helen Caldwell, working at the same company, designs flowers to be worn in the hair.

Pauline Lockhart, Kathy Parnell, and Janet LaCombe work at a dill pickle factory; I guess they never outgrew their love for pickles.

Well, all good things must end. I see Bruce Juhola standing beside me dripping wet. What happened to you, Bruce?

Bruce: I just fell into the river. One swallow of the water gave me hallucinations. I thought I saw Beth Haveles taking dictation from Aristotle Onasis. Let me sit down and relax after that awful experience.

Ah, yes. The vision is coming in very clearly. I see Anthony Croce and Carolyn Leeman have formed a partnership in their new company, Croce & Leeman Sweaters. Doris Trahan and Nancy Beebe are their head models.

Wayne LaChance owns his own "super-duper" market, and he has Richard Levesque working for him.

Jonathan Kastberg is in trouble again. He never could get over the instinct for crime that he developed in the Senior Play.

Dave Keeler and Paul Brennan have opened a museum to display all of their Olympic medals and trophies.

Carl Breckel's garbage business is flourishing. It looks like Danielson is finally cleaning up.

Franklin King is a well-known dog trainer. However, one day he was training one of his prize dogs to be a hunter; and he accidentally shot himself. He is now residing at the E. Julku Clinic; taking care of him are four able nurses, Liz Lawton, Kristine Rukstela, Jean Terwilleger, and Betty Schultz.

Charles Ennis invented a modern streamlined reduciary for Charlie Kania's and Kenny Leoutsacos' reducing salon. I guess they have a booming business.

Earl Clements almost fainted from shock when his prize cow had a two-headed calf.

Cathy Champlin made her pile selling refrigerators on TV. She could always win them over with her appealing smile.

Bob Joly owns his own minute car wash. Roger Poirier forgot to put the top up on his convertible and got a shampoo instead.

Kerry Brown is specializing in drawing naughty tattoos. Jack Burke and John Murphy are two of his chief customers.

Bonnie Wood and Frey Aarnio are co-owners in the latest modern health gym.

Sandra Racine has opened her own dressing plant in Rogers.

Don Bond is a physical education teacher. I guess his fondest wish came true.

Nancy Zadora and Linda Stuyinski are partners in the largest women's dress store in town. Just their old clothes alone would fill it.

Roman Gumula plays the leading male role in Hollywood's latest romantic movie. Margaret Baillie plays opposite him.

Stanley Ozog is band leader at the Mansfield Training School.

Joan Faford is an interior decorator and has just refinished the Hotel Statler in Hartford.

Donnie Keech is still Cupid's prize pupil.

Tom Singleton tried to make his million selling sun-tan lotion to the natives in Africa. Needless to say, he came home empty handed.

Time's up. Well, I guess that's all of them.

Roberta: It's certainly been fun seeing all of our old classmates again even if it was for only a short time. I guess it's back to the old U.S.A.

Geoffrey: Yeh, guess we had better get back. I've got to go back so I can count my millions again. So long.

Bruce: I've got to get back to my urchins again, too. Maybe we can meet here again in a few years and see if any changes have taken place in our old friends. Good-bye.

Roberta: Back to the track! Toodle-oo.

MRS. D. HARRIMAN

This yearbook would not have been possible without Mrs. Harriman. She gave unceasingly of her time and experience to make it one of the best ever printed. We thank you, Mrs. Harriman, for all the assistance you have given us.

The only reason that the yearbook stays "in the black" every year is that Miss Brodeur supervises the finances. We sincerely appreciate all the time she has spent worrying about the yearbook.

MISS I. BRODEUR

Every year, as the time approaches for the yearbook to be printed, Mrs. Brennan is always available to supervise the yearbook typists. We sincerely thank you, Mrs. Brennan, for helping make this yearbook a successful one.

MRS. B. BRENNAN

Publishing a yearbook requires a good many people and a great deal of time. Much extra work has gone into this year's Killonian yearbook since it is the largest ever published at Killingly High School. It is the product of effort, trial, and mutual achievement. It is a book showing the ideas, dreams, and hopes of the Class of 1960. This book also belongs to the entire student body of Killingly High, for one section portrays their undergraduate activities and another, their class pictures.

On the shoulders of the editors fell the duty of providing the ideas and planning this yearbook. The people of the staff performed many and varied jobs — all essential, some enjoyable, and many necessary but uninteresting. With the combined efforts of the advisors, editors, and staff a yearbook has been published — a yearbook of which all can be proud.

We, the Class of 1960, wish you, the seniors of tomorrow, long days of happiness at Killingly High . . .

Uncomplicated days,
Pleasant days — days overflowing with memories . . .

Cherish them for they soon will be gone . . .

The time will come when you will depart through the familiar doors into the future . . .

Your destination is unknown . . .

Whatever path you choose,
travel it with eagerness,
unafraid and with determination . . .

You represent the future of Killingly . . .

You will carry on its traditions . . .

Strive for those interests which your elders will honor and promote . . .

Search for knowledge . . .

Go forward with honor . . .

Success will be your crowning glory . . .

No man stands alone . . .
Everyone belongs . . .

This is important to all, especially to youth . . .

We are bound together by a mysterious bond of brotherhood . . .

We make new acquaintances,
We work together,
We play together . . .

We are born with a bias to some pursuit . . .

We will find our prize
by serving
our friends,
our school . . .

We are helping ourselves to meet the future . . .

The world belongs to us . . .
It lies within our reach . . .

We are the energetic . . .

We are engulfed in a never-ending wave of activity . . .

ACTIVITIES

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council, under the able and interested leadership of Mr. Koss, is an ambitious and hard-working group. This year they have concentrated mainly on reorganization by trying to further the scope of their activities in order to give student government a more prominent position at Killingly High School. They have tried to promote more interest in student affairs by making themselves the official voice of the student body.

The 1959-1960 Student Council has truly served as the stepping-stone and inspiration for Councils in years to come. We know that the future class officers of Killingly High will be both willing and able to promote added student interest by making the Student Council a constructive force behind all school activities.

TRAFFIC SQUAD

"Keep to the right please! No talking, please!" Can anyone imagine what Killingly High School would be like without these efficient and courteous Traffic Squad members? Completely impossible, isn't it?

Under the careful supervision of Mr. Oliva, the Traffic Squad has achieved important rank. Its members have been chosen for traits of good citizenship which they have exemplified. They have set a fine example for the entire student body to follow.

"Of course, the officers set the example for all! Or, do they?"

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The Guest Speaker

Reverend Ivanhoe McCollum

The induction ceremony of the National Honor Society is a dignified and moving service. It represents the just rewards of high scholastic achievement for the few students singled out for election to the society. These students must not only excel in scholarship but must also possess outstanding qualities of character, leadership, and service.

The six students who had already attained this honor in their junior year by maintaining a ninety-three per cent average conducted the 1960 induction ceremony. Ten juniors who had maintained an average of ninety-three for five semesters and six seniors who had maintained an average of ninety for seven semesters were presented certificates of membership by Principal Francis J. Fisher. At this year's induction Rev. Ivanhoe McCollum, pastor emeritus of the Baptist Church, was the guest speaker.

The honorary organization, under the capable guidance of Mrs. Thelma Bond, holds monthly meetings. It dedicates itself to service and to upholding the high standards of Killingly High School.

GIRLS' AND BOYS' STATE

The main objective of Laurel Girls' State and Nutmeg Boys' State is to help make better and more useful citizens from those who take an active interest in their community.

Each year, two outstanding girls and two outstanding boys are selected at the end of their junior year to spend a week at the University of Connecticut. Elizabeth, Marylin, Roland, and Robert did a fine job of representing Killingly High School.

The purpose of the Voice of Democracy Contest is to make students aware of the rights and privileges of a democracy.

Linnea and Sheila were awarded first and second prize, respectively, for their outstanding accomplishment in speaking on behalf of the blessings, freedoms, and opportunities traditional in this nation. Linnea then went on to win second prize in the county contest.

"Gotta meet the deadline!"

The Killonian staff, with a talent for writing, vents its extra energy by keeping its fellow classmates well-informed. Under the able leadership of Mrs. Knight and the editors, the staff members worked eagerly to meet deadlines and to keep this publication a credit to Killingly High School.

FUTURE FARMERS

The Future Farmers of America is a hard working, ambitious group enthusiastically led by Mr. Edward Gaffney, our agriculture teacher. They devote much time and effort to learning better farming methods and to serving the school. We would like to thank Mr. Gaffney and the boys for their service and wish them well in their agricultural vocations.

One of the special service groups at Killingly High is the Projectionist Club. The main goal of this club is to secure one person from each class to operate the equipment. Thus, the club is constantly working for the benefit of the students by providing experts in the operation of the audio-visual equipment. The projectionist crew is always on hand to show movies of increasing variety and importance in many subjects for assemblies and individual classes.

PROJECTIONISTS

DEBATING CLUB

Row 1: (L.-R.)—P. Sanders, Mr. S. Giles, S. Burlingame.
Row 2: (L.-R.)—H. Arndt, B. Kohl, J. Minio, D. Lemery.

"But words are things; and a small drop of ink,
Falling, like dew, upon a thought, produces
That which makes thousands, perhaps millions, think."

CLUB

"Nature contains the elements, in color and form, of all pictures as the keyboard contains the notes of all music. But the artist is born to pick, and choose, and group with science these elements that the result may be beautiful."

LATIN CLUB

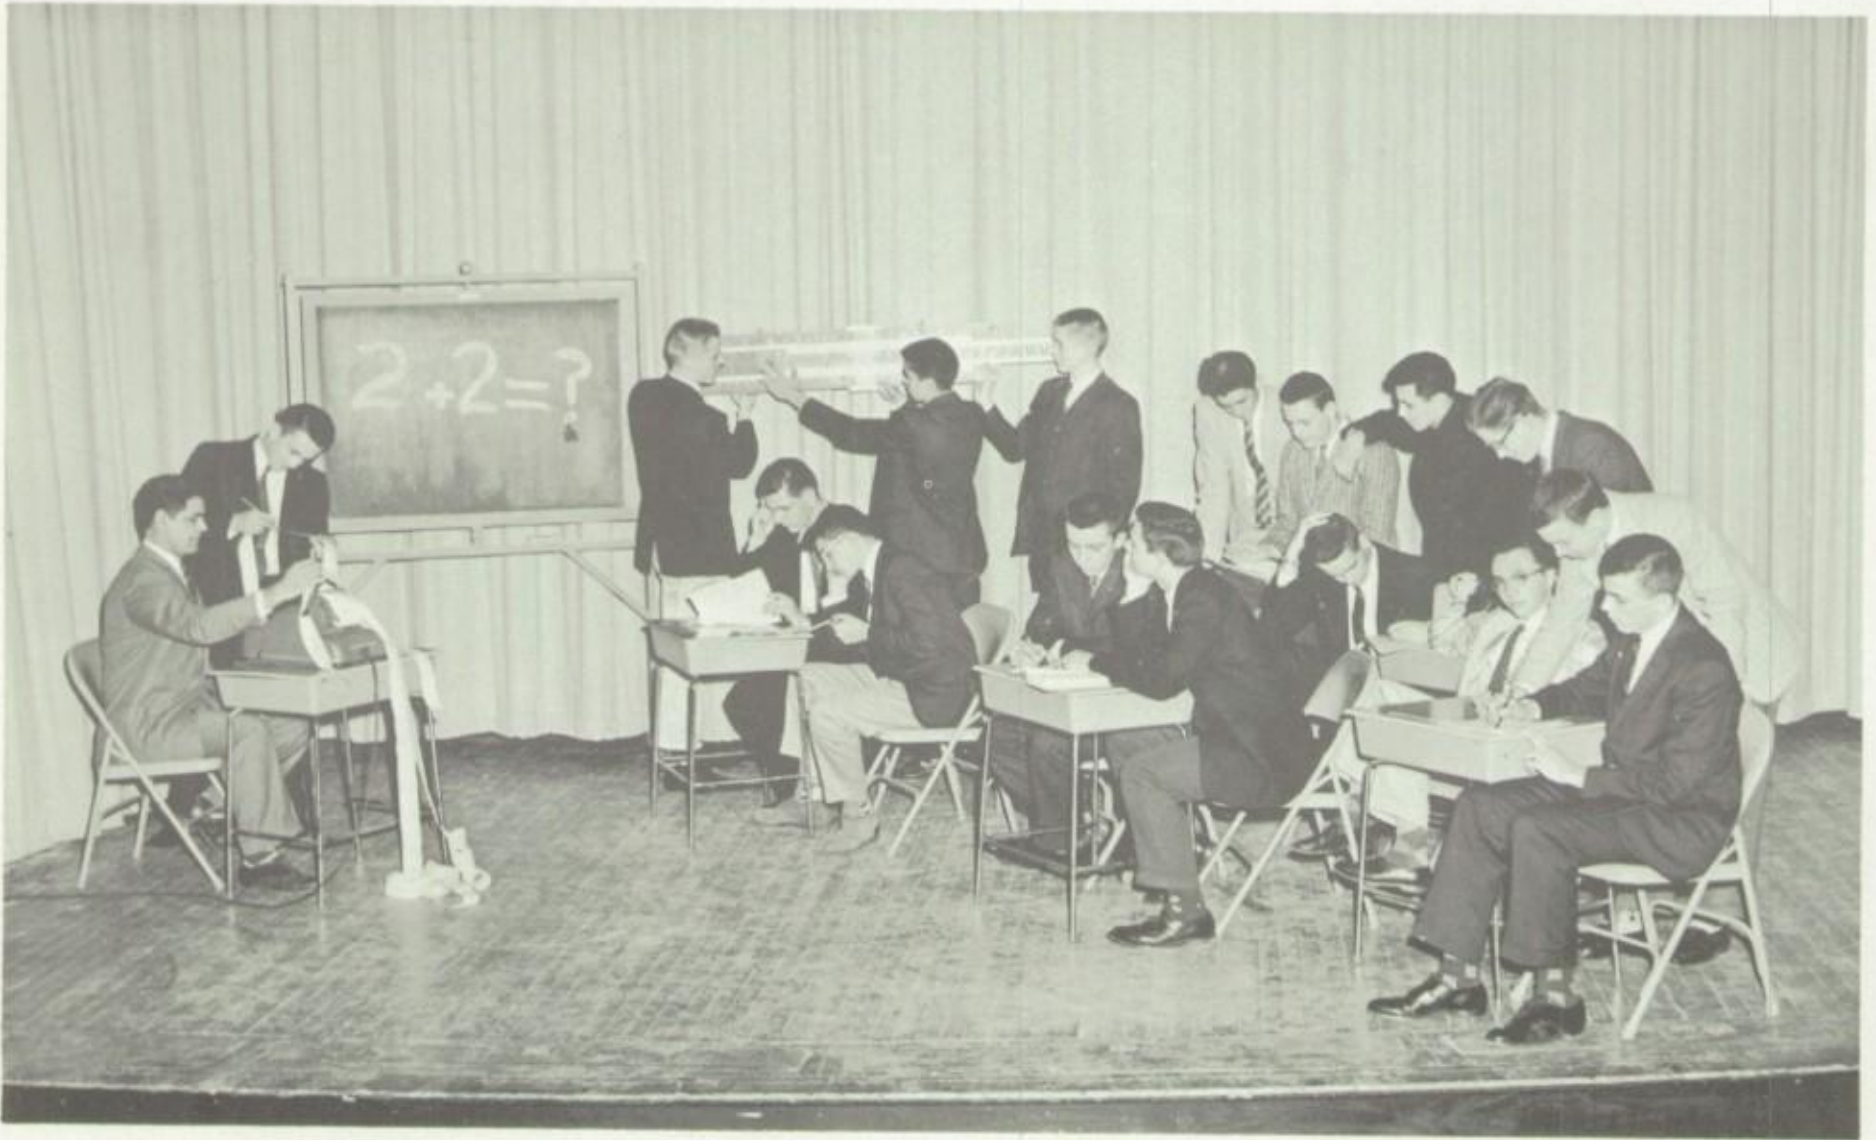

Row 1: (L.-R.)—D. Whalen, C. Farfaras, Q. Ross, Mr. H. Brine, A. Berris, M. Trahan, S. Normington, N. Brotz.

Row 2: (L.-R.)—T. Bellisario, J. Parnell, J. Talva, J. Kastberg, E. Wright, C. Tessier.

"Friends, Romans, Countrymen, lend me your ears;
I come to bury Caesar, not to praise him.
The evil that men do lives after them;
The good is oft interred with their bones;
So let it be with Caesar."

FUTURE ENGINEERS CLUB

Row 1: (L.-R.)—Mr. F. Koss, R. LaFleur, R. Kurz, A. Croce, C. Ennis, P. Peabody, J. Mercier, P. Samborski.
Row 2: (L.-R.)—T. Singleton, G. Cloutier, J. Greene, G. Racine, G. Rodean, B. Juhola, A. Kaminski, L. Grenon, W. Gilbert.

Although one would question the intelligence of our future engineers judging by the picture above, we have reason to believe that these boys will eventually solve problems far more complex than $2 + 2$

Throughout the year, the members explore the different fields of engineering, under the direction of Mr. Frank Koss, each searching for the one in which he will be happiest.

Mr. Koss, advisor to this group, takes an active interest in their work while under his leadership and also watches with an interested eye their progress in college.

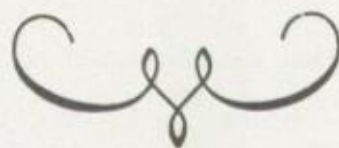

We see that the leadership is excellent and the potential great, but the question remains, "Just what is $2 + 2$?"

FUTURE TEACHERS CLUB

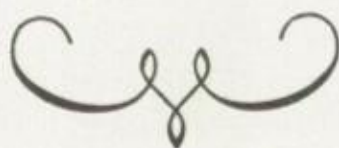

Row 1: (L.-R.)—J. Anderson, E. Haveles, B. Zaica, Mrs. B. Niejadlik, R. Golas, E. Ainsworth, W. Flagg, S. Clements.
 Row 2: (L.-R.)—E. Holgerson, R. Charbonneau, I. Oja, N. Burke, M. Olsiewski, B. Melanson, C. Newton, K. Parnell, E. Carr.

Killingly High has good reason to be proud of its Future Teachers of America Club, one of our largest and most active career clubs. Under the capable leadership of our guidance director, Mrs. Bernice Niejadlik, the organization provides for its members information and guidance concerning careers in teaching.

In view of the distressing teacher shortage, we see how important this organization is; and in view of the number of enthusiastic future teachers at Killingly, we believe that Killingly High School is doing its share of producing more teachers. We think that our future teachers of today will fulfill this early promise and become some of the best teachers of tomorrow.

FUTURE NURSES CLUB

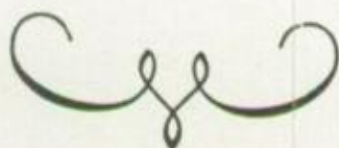

Row 1: (L.-R.)—C. Samborski, G. Crescimanno, E. Lawton, J. Terwilleger, Miss M. Gibney, E. Caron B. Wood, K. Rukstela, R. Berube.
 Row 2: (L.-R.)—A. Dauphinais, J. Child, L. Baribeault, S. Kopely, E. Wright, P. Kastberg, P. Lockhart, M. Edmondson, J. Albee.
 Row 3: (L.-R.)—J. Hurlburt, R. Hill, D. Kohler, M. Lannon, K. Cyr, E. Viens, J. LaCombe.

For those who are planning a career in nursing, the Future Nurses Club is almost a "must". Under the supervision of Miss Mary Gibney the girls have been introduced to the nursing profession and have gained practical knowledge of nursing techniques. They have developed an understanding of the world of science and ideas, and of human beings.

The Future Nurses of Killingly enjoy working with people and wish to be useful, contributing members of society. All want to become members of a profession which is constantly adjusting its aims to meet the needs of the society it serves.

This year their program has included guest speakers, field trips to various hospitals, and film strips dealing with many different fields of nursing. Through these activities the girls have learned that nursing is a career of importance and responsibility.

MEDICAL CAREERS CLUB

Row 1: (L.-R.)—D. Kohler, C. Linkkila, M. Clarie, C. Brown, E. Julku, A. Benson, P. Kastberg.
Row 2: (L.-R.)—S. Ahola, R. Cloutier, Mrs. B. Niejadlik, F. Feldman, S. Burlingame.

The Medical Careers Club, under the careful supervision of Mrs. Bernice Niejadlik, provides insight into the field of medicine. It is striving to help students decide what sort of medical career to choose.

The most rewarding activity of the club is visiting various hospitals in the area. This enables the students to get a good idea of what hospital routine and services are like.

Chorus has enabled students to participate in musical functions both for entertainment of others and for personal enjoyment. Never has the chorus been restricted to a particular type of music for, under the leadership of Miss Florence Carpenter, it has been possible to hear selections ranging from the greatest classical masterpieces to the finest musical comedy pieces.

Each year in Hartford, Connecticut, singers who have been chosen for this signal honor come to meet, rehearse, and join together to present a magnificent and highly polished performance of choral work.

We are proud that Linda Arnold and Paul Peabody were chosen and that they represented us so well.

Various members of the student body under the direction of Mr. Robert Spencer have joined to form the Killingly High School band. With each passing year this band has earned distinction by doing much to further an art that is one of the glories of mankind — music.

The 1959-1960 season opened with blaring trumpets and snaring drums. The K.H.S. band, battling cold winds, was seen proudly marching down the gridiron. The Alumni Field was filled with gaiety and inspiring music aroused school spirit to a fever pitch.

As winter came, the sweet music of the yuletide season flowed into the hearts of all during the Christmas Assembly. The echo of the Angel's song was heard as the student body and faculty joined with the band in the singing of various carols.

In the spring the annual concert burst forth in a silver shower of melody. The harmonious notes echoed through the auditorium while the audience sat enchanted. Never before had there been such quality of tone.

The loud "Boom" of the bass drum and the "Crash" of the cymbals ushered in the new spring season of parading — and then, the close of another year.

The members of the Killingly High School band can be proud of their organization and can take pleasure in the congratulations that are conveyed to them by the entire student body and faculty for a job well-done.

MAJORETTES

The Killingly High School majorettes have helped to instill school spirit. The entire student body and faculty have been very pleased with the gay personalities of these high-strutting, energetic girls. Marching at the head of the band, the majorettes have displayed an endless variety of routines and have added much color to our activities.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

Under the able direction of coaches Roche, Allard and Sliva, the Redmen compiled a commendable five and three record.

When the '59 football season rolled around, it was believed by many that this year's team would be one of the best K.H.S. had put on the gridiron. Only two first stringers had been lost through graduation. On the other hand, the team was bolstered by the acquisition of John Murphy and by the overall experience of the returning lettermen.

The team started off fine with a pre-season 6-0 exhibition victory over Westboro in a round robin.

The season began with a 36-0 scalping of Plainfield. Griswold fell before the Killingly onslaught, 36-6. The next Saturday the team traveled to Stonington to score an 8-0 win in a hard fought battle. The price of victory was high, however, as the Redmen lost star half-back Dave Keeler with a knee injury.

The team lost its next three games to a speedy Wells outfit and Woodrow Wilson and Fitch outswam the K.H.S. Redmen on water-soaked fields.

They rebounded from these losses to swamp a fiery but inexperienced Waterford eleven, coached by former K.H.S. star, Bill Mignault, 40-0.

Then came the big one. After two years of frustration and defeat, the Redmen turned on the power and handed the Putnam Clippers a 26-6 thrashing. It was a great team victory and all deserve credit.

The 1959-60 version of the K.H.S. basketball squad was the mystery of the sporting season. On any given night the team would play an outstanding game. However, at times they experienced inexplicable lapses. Lacking any height, the Redmen scrambled and pressed their way to a respectable 13-9 overall record and a berth in the C.I.A.C. Tourney. A 58-56 double overtime win at Waterford was very impressive; but two wins over Putnam were the most satisfying. At Putnam the team showed tremendous spirit in overcoming a ten point deficit in the second half to win by a single point and then crushing the Clippers at home, winning by 29 points. The squad was headed by seniors Charlie Ennis, Ronnie LaFleur, Paul Samborski, and Captain Tom Singleton.

Coached by Mr. Berthiaume and Mr. Roche, the returning seniors this year were flychasers Paul Peabody, the captain, and Bob Golas; Tom Singleton held down the first base position and Ronnie LaFleur played the "hot corner," third base.

The team this year had the first inning "blues." In the games they have lost, the opponents scored most of their runs in the first inning. The baseball team, though, has played many fine games. Armand Gaudette, junior pitcher, displayed a fine job of pitching, defeating Ellis Tech 13-1, allowing only one hit!

"Fore!"

This year the golf team had matches scheduled with Putnam, New London, Fitch, Norwich Free Academy, Waterford, and Marianapolis Prep. School. Although the team lost its first three matches, the major problem was the unavailability of the best players. At full strength, Mr. Hammond felt that the team had a good chance of defeating either Putnam or Fitch in a re-match. Seniors on the squad this year were Bruce Juhola, Paul Brennan, Jon Kastberg, Roland Cloutier, and Tony Croce. Leonard Mullen, Alex Panteleakos, and Lucien Grenon, all sophomores, played in the first three matches.

CAPTAIN GERRY CLOUTIER

Although suffering from a lack of depth and adequate training facilities, the track team turned in a spectacular performance in their first meet, trouncing E. O. Smith of Storrs, 84-20. The fact that we won first in every event but one points out the potential of the squad. Seniors on the squad were Captain Gerry Cloutier, Roland Cloutier, Dave Keeler, and Ken Leoutsacos.

The Girls' Sports Club has offered an opportunity for girls in all classes to participate in intramural sports. Each time a girl took part in any sport, she earned points towards numerals, letters and charms. The rewards were bought by the money in the class treasury; each girl paid $1.00 per year for membership.

This year activities included softball, volleyball, basketball, tumbling, badminton, and swimming.

Our main activities during the year were our "Beat Putnam Dance," Bonfire, and Sports Night.

Under the supervision of Mrs. Grace MacFarland, we had a very active and successful year.

GIRLS' LEADERS CLUB

The Girls' Leaders Club is an organization for girls interested in gymnastics. The girls assist Mrs. MacFarland in gym classes by taking attendance, refereeing games and helping students who have difficulties in any sport.

To become a member, the candidates must pass a test covering the rules of the various sports. The final decision, however, rests with the Girls' Sports Club, who must vote the candidates into the organization.

CLASS WILL

George Nichols bequeaths his Indian head-dress to next year's senior chief.

Richard Levesque gladly wills the wall next to Room 13 to any junior boy who likes to hold up walls.

Emila Julku leaves her high marks to some needy sophomore; that is, if there is any.

Joyce Egan wills the yards and yards of tape used for her broken ribs to the football team.

Richard Anger bequeaths his jovial spirit to Freddie Feldman.

To the person who doesn't mind walking, Marie Edmondson leaves her job as absentee slip collector for period three.

Doris Trahan leaves the girls this philosophy of life, "The way to a man's heart is through his stomach."

Jimmy Hiironen is the recipient of Dave Allen's efficiency at keeping peace with the teachers. This skill includes cooperation, understanding and responsibility.

Helen Caldwell leaves with only her hair-dresser knowing whether she does or doesn't.

So that Mr. Giles will be prepared for next year's debates, Elaine Gagnon and Marilyn Marcheterre will him all their important documents and data.

Janet LaCombe bequeaths her elastics which hold her pony tail together to Maureen Lannon, who is always breaking hers.

While Mr. Brine wasn't looking, Pauline Lockhart and Sheila Dvarcas quickly and quietly sneaked out the back door. They left only their books.

Ruth Campbell leaves her letter-writing talent to any girl who has a long-lost friend overseas.

Dale White wills her vitality to the major-ettes. It seems her pep wore her out; she had to get rid of it.

Penny Leach bequeaths her neatness to anyone who needs it. Penny believes in this saying, "Let's keep America clean."

Tom Singleton leaves K.H.S. with these final words to Mr. Monk: "My Volks can beat your TR3 any day."

In closing this Great Document, we, the Elders, wish the very best to you, our people, and hope that love, understanding, faith and wisdom will rule your hearts and lives. If this is the case, we will be truly rewarded and also pleased at having belonged to such a respected tribe of Indians.

EPILOGUE

O June,
gently sever the chain that binds us that we may go forth . . .

Yet,
leave the gossamer thread
of memory untouched . . .

Let it link us forever to these ivy halls that we love.
